WIRELESS TELECOMMUNICATIONS BUREAU SEEKS COMMENT ON A PETITION FOR WAIVER OF THE COMMISSION'S PART 64 PRIORITY ACCESS SERVICE RULES

Comment Date: November 21, 2001

On November 2, 2001, Verizon Wireless (Verizon) filed a petition for waiver (Petition) in connection with its proposal to provide a type of "priority access service" to the National Communications System (NCS). The NCS administers and manages the telecommunications assets of twenty-three Federal organizations in serving the national security and emergency preparedness (NSEP) needs of Federal, State and local governments. Specifically, Verizon seeks a waiver of Section 64.402 of the Commission's Rules, which provides the requirements for Commercial Mobile Radio Services (CMRS) operators who wish to offer priority access service (PAS). The NCS has filed a statement in support of the Verizon waiver request.

By way of background, on October 9, 2000, the Commission's PAS Rules for CMRS providers became effective. As a result, CMRS providers may voluntarily begin offering PAS to NSEP personnel at Federal, State and local levels to help meet the NSEP needs of the nation. CMRS providers that choose to offer PAS, in accordance with the Commission's Rules, adhere to uniform operating protocols concerning the number of priority levels and the priority level for particular NSEP users. Under Section 64.402, PAS allows authorized NSEP users in emergencies to gain access to the next available wireless channel without preempting calls already in progress.

Section 1.925 of the Commission's Rules, 47 C.F.R. § 1.925, provides that a waiver of the Commission's Rules may be granted if it is shown that the underlying purpose of the rule(s) would not be served or would be frustrated by application to the instant case, and that a grant of the requested waiver would be in the public interest; or in view of the unique or unusual circumstances of the instant case, application of the rule(s) would be inequitable, unduly burdensome or contrary to the public interest or in the applicant has no reasonable alternative.

Comment is sought on the Verizon Petition for Waiver. Interested parties may file comments on the Waiver Request on or before November 21, 2001. Verizon may submit a reply comment on or before November 28, 2001. All comments must be filed through the Electronic Comment Filing System (ECFS). Additionally, interested parties must e-mail a copy of each filing to John T. Scott III, Verizon Wireless, 1300 I Street, N.W., Suite 400-W, Washington, DC 20005, john.scott@verizonwireless.com.

Comments filed through the ECFS can be sent as an electronic file via the Internet to <http://www.fcc.gov/e-file/ecfs.html>. Generally, only one copy of an electronic submission must be filed. In completing the transmittal screen, commenters should include their full name, Postal Service mailing address, and the applicable docket or rulemaking number. The docket number for this proceeding is WT Docket Number 01-320. Parties may also submit an electronic comment by Internet e-mail. To obtain filing instructions for e-mail comments, commenters should send an e-mail to ecfs@fcc.gov, and should include the following words in the body of the message, "get form <your e-mail address>." A sample form and directions will be sent in reply.
